

Pre-Kindergarten Newsletter

November

Fall Reminders

Our pre-k children will continue to go outside twice a day, every day unless the weather is dangerous. Please send your children with labelled hat, gloves, scarves etc... Additionally have your child practice putting on their outerwear independently.

Class Activities

Our unit of study for the month of November will be All About Us. In this unit we will continue to learn about what makes each of us unique and important and we will extend this learning to incorporate our families. Activities will include: Making self -portraits using a variety of materials, making self to text connections between ourselves and the characters we read about, and counting to answer “How many?” questions about the people in our families.

Books to read at home

Little Elliot Big City by Mike Curato, I Love My Hair by Natasha Tarpley, The Feelings Book by Todd Parr, Friendshape by Amy Krouse Rosenthal and Tom Litchentenheld, I love Saturdays and Domingos by Alma Flor Ada

Parent Involvement

Talk to your child about the members of your family.

- Count the members in your immediate family
- Name them by first name
- Discuss family relationships such as brother, sister, cousin, aunt, uncle etc...

Complete the Together Time activities that are sent home so that you child can share his or her work with the class.
